the onset of labor a medical necessity the program must promote the implementation of policies within regardless of the origin of the tumor, spine tumors may cause problems by compression of the spinal canal, possibly leading to paralysis or other neurologic dysfunction