those systems which include a battery to operate the secondary circuit require constant surveillance by maintenance personnel in order to replace the batteries before they deteriorate with age also, it is a highly regulated substance so plan on lots of doctor trips (17), blood work, thyroid function tests (18), etc.