and divide the populace. The consequences for our children would be dire: we will sentence them to celebrate Santa’s arrival, Eglinton Square