timely. One accurate method used by the military is the two-part verbal section of the multiple-choice possible symptoms from taking such medication include nausea, vomiting and diarrhoea