in some cases, the benefits of rare disease drugs may be only marginal, despite persuasive anecdotes from vocal patient advocates.

2) regardless of what, i think 1 lakh per year subscription is way too much sadly the group treated several very ill infants who were malnourished, dehydrated, underdeveloped, feverish and covered with rashes from head to toe.