the department has the right to require the contractor to provide, at no cost to the department, a special performance guarantee or other bond with respect to a substitute.