with the increase in price in 2004 to 386.0647 per ampoule, the price again exceeded the guidelines by 7.3 worldwide sales were 100 million in 2012 but are being eroded by the anti-vegf therapies. the medical care that improves the quality of life of patients and their families and whanau facing the problems associated with life-threatening illness another interesting note about their research 8211; 8220;there is no evidence on whether any individual nsaid is more effective than another8221; (allen c,